British Columbia Football Hall of Fame Nomination Guidelines

The Selection Process

Nominations for the calendar year are accepted until November 1st.

Any individual or association may submit a nomination.

Each nomination is valid for three consecutive years.

All nominations will be considered at the beginning of November. Depending on the outcome of the process, further information on the nomination may be required.

The final selection process will take place in the middle of November and the names will be released to the media in December.

British Columbia Football Hall of Fame Nomination Guidelines (continued)

Special Awards Categories

This special recognition award is presented from time to time an individual who has made a significant contribution to football in British Columbia, but who would not otherwise qualify for induction into the British Columbia Football Hall of Fame.

The candidate must exemplify good character and dedication, and provide inspiration to present and future generations.

Qualifications for Individual Athletic Nominations

Any athlete (able bodies or an athlete with a disability) who has attained a high level of excellence and brought recognition or honour to British Columbia football on a national or international level in relation to participation in open level sport(s) competition.

A British Columbia member of a Canadian team may stand for induction as an individual athlete.

An individual is not eligible for nomination until three (3) years following retirement from open senior competition, except in the event of death or by winning an Olympic or a World championship gold medal whereby the nomination is eligible for immediate consideration.

Qualifications for Individual Builder Nominations

Attained a high level of excellence and brought recognition or honour to football in British Columbia through ongoing dedication to the building of athletes, team, or sport itself.

Qualifications for Team Nominations

Any team (consisting of able bodies or athletes with disabilities) which has attained a high level of excellence and brought recognition of honour to football in British Columbia at a national or international level in relation to open level competition. Team members are recognized as part of a team and not as an individual Honoured member.

The British Columbia member of a Canadian team, which has reached special excellence on a national or international level, may be nominated and inducted as a group in the Team category.

Teams are selected for achievements in one year, not an era.
